The Heritage Garden

*I found one vast garden spread out all over the universe.
All plants, all human beings, all higher mind bodies,
are about in this garden in various ways,
each has his own uniqueness and beauty.
Their presence and variety give me great delight.
Every one of you adds with his special*

Art, Craft, Heritage and Nature are inseparable since its inception. Nepal is world renowned for its heritage and serene beauty which is the inspiration behind the collection "Heritage Garden". The exotic flowers of Nepal embroidered on organic cotton dyed in indigo blue and white color is the highlight of the collection.
